Chairman Jonathon Davis states that for tonight's meeting, all budget requests for 2026 will be discussed tonight, without making any motions at this time.

Circuit Clerk, Lesa Gramling, proposed $116,000 salary expenses be moved from Recorder's Cost Fund to County General Fund.

Judge Mary Broadaway requested $3,000 to Chip Barnes for Supervisory duties. Also proposed an additional Juvenile Officer. Up to $20,000 paid by the Office of Admin. Courts. County's share at $40,000.

County Extension office requested an additional agent for Family Consumer Science. Cost of $55,000.

County Judge's salary is paid 14 pay periods from County General and 12 pay periods from Roads fund. Request is for County Judge to be paid 20 pay periods from the County General and only 6 pay periods from the Roads. This is a reallocation of $37,600 to County General.

Already budgeted in this current draft for utilities for the Historical Courthouse to be occupied by the County Judge and staff in 2026.

Coroner requested $33,000 total in salary increases for himself and his deputies overall. He will be present at the next Finance Committee meeting to discuss.

Proposed increase in Chief Deputies salaries in the Courthouse. Still working on finalizing those numbers.

Proposed increase in Longevity pays.

Countywide salary adjustments will be updated when numbers are available. Discussion of 2, 3, or 4%.

Economic Development Committee request, to be discussed at next Finance Committee meeting.

Next Finance Team Meeting will be held November 3, 2025 at 5:15pm.

Justice Ronnie Roberts made a motion and Justice Bill McCartney seconded to adjourn the meeting.
